From the East

Hello Brethren.

Time flies when you're having fun. Judging from the good turnout at meetings, Fellowship Breakfasts, and the monthly Fellowship Dinners at a local restaurant, our Brothers and ladies are enjoying some great food and fellowship. Let the Worshipful Master know if you have a favorite restaurant with a meeting room and we'll look into it.

The monthly breakfasts are providing delicious food. Please extend your appreciation to Worshipful Richard Earls and his lady Penny for getting up early and providing for our Brothers. Fortunately, we have Andy Kittren contributing his talents whenever the kitchen is open. Bring your family and any potential members for a great Saturday morning (8-10).

If you have any interest in joining the Catechism Instructors team, let any officer know. I send out a huge thank you to our current instructors. We have several petitions in the pipeline and are looking forward to some degrees.

The lodge group text messaging has caught on with much enthusiasm. Text the Worshipful Master and include your service provider's name and you'll be added to the list. All is sent out blind copy, so you won't be inundated with replies, etc.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Roger McKay, Worshipful Master

From the West

My Brothers,

Good news! We have been successful with reducing our yearly insurance. The credit for this goes to Brothers Ron Barker and Kirk Hall. This will help with finalizing the budget this year.

It has been difficult to create a budget this year with everything increasing in cost. We hope to have a reasonable budget in April. The Finance Committee is meeting to come up with suggestions for covering the Lodge expenses, which will be brought before you, the Craft, for the vote. The main message is there is nothing getting less expensive. Expect to have funding policy being brought before the craft for a vote as well.

There is something you from the Craft can do. Call Brothers you know and urge them to come back to the lodge. The more we brothers are involved the better the lodge will be. Each of you have experiences, knowledge and learning you can share with the Craft. Please pick a topic and bring it before the lodge for a 15-minute talk. With your help, the lodge can be an interesting place to visit. Thank you.

Fraternally,
Ronald Lentz, Senior Warden
